Equal Opportunity & Anti-Discrimination Policy

Our commitment to fair, merit-based decisions in hiring, pay, promotion, traini other employment decision — and how to raise a concern.

REF	KB-E-03
VERSION	V2.0
EFFECTIVE	01 JAN 2026
FOR	ALL EMPLOYEES
CLASSIFICATION	INTERNAL / ALL EMPLOYEES

Emids Technologies provides equal opportunity in every aspect of employment: hiring, onboarding, pay, benefits, training, transfer, promotion, discipline and exit. Decisions are made on capability, performance and conduct — nothing else.

1. Our commitment

We do not discriminate on the basis of race, colour, religion, caste, sex, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, pregnancy, marital or family status, disability, age, national origin, veteran status or any other characteristic protected by the law that applies to you. Harassment or victimisation linked to any of these is treated under the disciplinary policy as serious misconduct.

2. What this looks like in practice

- Job postings, interview questions and evaluation sheets are standardised so candidates are compared on the same criteria.
- Pay ranges are set by role and level; adjustments need a documented business or market reason.
- Meeting times, lighting, workstations and leave practices are flexible enough that caregivers, employees with disabilities and employees observing religious obligations can perform fully.
- Reasonable accommodation requests for disabilities or chronic illness are handled by HR confidentially and without you needing to justify your worth for it.

3. Raising a concern

If you feel you have been treated unfairly on any protected ground, raise it in an HR ticket, with any HR contact, or through your manager. You may also use the Speak-Up & Whistleblower Policy (KB-E-04) if you prefer confidentiality or are reporting someone senior. Concerns are investigated without you being required to first confront the person involved.

4. No retaliation

No one may be punished — formally or informally — for raising a good-faith concern, supporting an investigation or refusing an instruction that breaches this policy. HR monitors outcomes for at least 12 months after a complaint to make sure nothing shifts quietly against the complainant.

> Managers: this policy makes you personally accountable for the fairness of decisions on your team. When scoring reports or forming panels, document your reasoning — it is reviewed if the decision is later challenged.
